A Madness of Angels starts with Matthew Swift, a sorcerer who died two years ago, suddenly awake in his old home. He doesn't know why he's back or who resurrected him, and he makes it his mission to find out and deliver vengeance. I think a large part of why I liked this book so much was Matthew Swift himself, who is a fascinating narrator.

He-- and the entities who possess him--have only one thought in his/their mind: revenge against those who killed him and brought them back.
