Dear John by Nicholas Sparks is a somewhat predictable love story between John, who is stationed in Germany on 9/11 and re-enlists in the Army, and Savannah, a naive college student who dreams of owning a horse ranch for people with autism. While their love seems deep, it is challenged by the distance of John's deployment.

Dear John by Nicholas Sparks - Goodreads

Nicholas Sparks creates an excellent narrator in John who draws the reader in to his world and relationships. I most enjoyed John's relationship with his father which the author examined very sensitively, and showed a good knowledge of the autism spectrum without being patronising.
