I like Helgerson's start with the mean Duke and then Claire's note of the "queer old chunk of water". That narrative hook pulled me right into Horns & Wrinkles, dying to know what came next in this quirky story as told in first-person protagonist point-of-view from Claire's perspective.

Horns and Wrinkles by Joseph Helgerson —Goodreads

River trolls, rock trolls, faeries, crickets, and curses combine to form a clever and enchanting story in Joseph Helgerson's Horns and Wrinkles. Set along a northern stretch of the Mississippi River, the novel follows Claire, a young girl constantly bullied by her cousin Duke.
