It's = It has (not possessive) "It's been a long time." "It's been brewing awhile." "It's got to happen soon." A Mnemonic Device: It's an apostrophe. ITS Its indicates possessive. Or, put a more technical way, its is the possessive form of the neuter pronoun "it" — his, her, its.

It's not Its | Its not It's

It's and its are among the most commonly confused words.They are pronounced the same, there's a very small difference in how they're written, and it's also easy to mistake the contraction in it's for a possessive. But the rules are very clear—it's is the same type of contraction as "where's" or "there's," and its is a possessive just like "my" or "your."
