Ks1 Why Is Jesus Important

Why is Jesus important? For starters, Jesus claimed to be God . So, you and I have a choice to make based on what Jesus said about himself. Jesus is either a crazy person who thought He was God, or He is a liar and knew He wasn't God but still told His followers that He was, or Jesus was right and He is God. Those are our options. Unfortunately, Jesus' claims to be God cannot be accepted as wise teaching from some sort of prophet or moral leader because if Jesus is not God, like He said ...

Jesus also taught us how important it is to use our time wisely. This does not mean there can never be any leisure, for there must be time for contemplation and for renewal, but there must be no waste of time. How we manage time matters so very much, and we can be good managers of time without being frantic or officious. Time cannot be recycled.

Jesus: The Perfect Leader - Church Of Jesus Christ

Because Jesus is the Savior, God the Father made a very special way for Him to come as a baby. In the Bible, Isaiah 9:6 says that Jesus is Emmanuel, which means that God is with us. In Bible times, God chose Mary to have Jesus as a baby so He could come to earth, live with all the people on the earth and then die on the cross to save us.

What do we know about Jesus? | Teaching Resources

Why did Jesus have to die? There is a belief in modern society that parents need to build children up and increase their self-esteem so that they do not ever feel badly about themselves. But the truth of the Gospel is that we have all sinned (Romans 3:23), deserve the punishment of death (Romans 6:23), and need a Savior (Matthew 1:21).
