Look Up. This EFL lesson is designed around a short film and poem by Gary Turk and the theme of isolation caused by the use of new technology. Students watch a short film with no sound and speculate about the story it tells, read a poem and discuss digital technology, social media and isolation. Tell the learners they are going to watch but not hear, the first part of a short film and poem called Look up.

Look Up - Film English

In the short film Look Up by Gary Turk he shows you the consequences of staying plugged in during life. You connect to the internet, but not your friends. Then again, how can you call them friends when all they see are the parts edited or picked out? Gary Turk makes a good point, but we do not need to get rid of it all together.
