Dag Hammarskjöld quotes Showing 1-30 of 93. "When you have reached the point where you no longer expect a response, you will at last be able to give in such a way that the other is able to receive, and be grateful. When Love has matured and, through a dissolution of the self into light, become a radiance, then shall the Lover be liberated from dependence upon the Beloved, and the Beloved also be made perfect by being liberated from the Lover."

Dag Hammarskjöld - 'Markings' ~Write Spirit

Hammarskjöld left behind a most unusual manuscript, eventually published as Markings (public library) — a compendium of reflections and poems constellating a luminous record of one person's struggle for a foothold of meaning, radiating universal human truth. Partway between young Tolstoy's diaries, Walt Whitman's prose meditations, and artist Ann Truitt's journals, these fragments of thought and feeling embody what it means for a person who has devoted their life to moral action ...
