The Human Soul | What Bahá'is Believe

Answer: The Bible is not perfectly clear as to the nature of the human soul. But from studying the way the word soul is used in Scripture, we can come to some conclusions. Simply stated, the human soul is the part of a person that is not physical. It is the part of every human being that lasts eternally after the body experiences death.

Tantor Media - Nature and the Human Soul

"Given that the human soul is the very core of our human nature, we might note that, when we are guided by soul, we are guided by nature. Both soul and greater nature do guide us in our individual development, whether or not we ask for this guidance." — Bill Plotkin, Nature and the Human Soul: Cultivating Wholeness and Community in a Fragmented World

Nature and the Human Soul Quotes by Bill Plotkin

The human soul is that part of a person that is eternal—the part that lives on after the body dies and decays. Jesus said we were not to fear men, who can only kill the body, but not the soul (Matthew 10:28). There is some confusion as to whether the human spirit and the human soul are the same thing, or different in some way.
