This review is about the Penguin Classics: Sophocles, the Three Theban Plays, translated by Robert Fagles. I have so far only read Oedipus the King and the introduction to the play by Bernard Knox. Fagles' translation is very readable and engaging. It strikes the right tone and is absolutely my go-to version of this fantastic play.

The final lesson on Oedipus the King by Sophocles. Bernard Knox shows the change that comes over the hero after he learns the truth about the prophecy of Apollo which he has fulfilled. Using two selected scenes, Knox explains that Oedipus has gained true knowledge of life through his painful search for truth.
