What is a writing rubric? I think of a rubric as a performance scoring guide. Rubrics lay out expectations of an assignment by listing criteria and levels of quality on a scale. For example, on a writing rubric the criteria may be 'Uses punctuation accurately' or 'Begins with capital letter.' The scale (level of quality) may be needs improvement;

These standards seem like a huge change, but really, at the 2nd grade level, they aren't. If you're practicing good teaching, chances are you're hitting these standards! I do suggest you take a moment and glance through the PDF! There's actually a lot of good "stuff" in there that I believe was missing in standards past.

The definition of narrative is a piece of writing that tells a story, and it is one of four classical rhetorical modes or ways that writers use to present information. The others include an exposition, which explains and analyzes an idea or set of ideas; an argument, which attempts to persuade the reader to a particular point of view; and a description, a written form of a visual experience.

Yes – 2nd graders (or any grade) will be horrible at doing pushups/curlups/pacer if it's the first time they've ever done it. Nobody is awesome at something the first time they try it... don't worry, don't put a ton of pressure on them to perform well and don't expect them to be awesome – you have 3 more years with them.
