Chapter One: Home and Memories. Night had just fallen. The sky was of a deep shade of blue and stars were twinkling at the horizon; the warm breeze gently ruffled the leaves of the frail and thin trees, timidly rising from the ground covered in thick green grass.

The Songs of Trees: Stories from Nature's Great Connectors ...

Trees are the main subject of hundreds of songs. The reason is quite simple: we would like to be just like them - strong, robust, able to grow and mature throughout seasons. Or maybe just because trees are a symbol of longevity and wisdom. And forests have always been considered sacred places and sanctuaries home to nature's strength.
