Formula One sponsorship liveries have been used since the late 1960s, replacing the previously used national colours. With sponsors becoming more important with the rising costs in Formula One, many teams wanted to be able to display the logos of their sponsors as clearly as possible. The liveries are usually changed for every season in the sport, marking the marketing ideas of the sponsors.

Brink! is a 1998 Disney Channel Original Movie (DCOM) set in the backdrop of aggressive inline skating. The film was written by Jeff Schechter and directed by Greg Beeman . The film stars Erik von Detten as Andy "Brink" Brinker, a high school inline skater who joins a group of sponsored aggressive inline skaters to earn money to help his financially troubled family.

~~How to Write a Sponsorship Letter That Actually Works ...~~

A sponsorship proposal is a document that is written with the purpose of luring benefactors to sponsor an event, program, or a project proposal. This type of a proposal focuses on the idea of securing a sponsorship when there is not enough aid to support a project and at the same time selling benefits to the client.

Holding a big event could be a little too much for some of us especially if we are low on our finances. So what most of us do is to get some sponsors for the event. We want it to be a success so we resort to this option. What most of us don't know is that most companies or people in the management report want their names or brands be within the reach of the consumers
