I was really excited when I heard of Cyn Balog's Starstruck. I originally read Ms. Balog's Fairy Tale and I absolutely loved it. So needless to say I was excited about the chance for an early reviewer's copy. I found the synopsis intriguing and unique since you rarely read a book

STARSTRUCK, by Cyn Balog, is a refreshing contemporary story of a not-so-normal girl who experiences a bit of the supernatural. When her best friend/long-distance boyfriend moves back to her hometown, Dough feels that he will take one look at her and run the other way.

Cyn Balog (Author of Fairy Tale) -
Goodreads

I've read Cyn Balog's Fairy Tale and Sleepless and knew that I would love Starstruck just as much. I was right; Balog never disappoints. Her originality, easy writing style, and the way she channels her characters so well makes her one of my absolute favorite YA authors.

Starstruck, Cyn Balog -"Bears Read Too!"

Starstruck by Cyn Balog by Savannah Thorpe StageofLife.com College Book Editor This was one of the most peculiar books I've read in a long, long time. I'm gonna be totally honest here - it's been sitting in my "to read" pile for so long, I was considering just ignoring it totally and just writing it off as "too old."
