I am playing the fourth episode of "The Lost Tales Of Axeoth: Unity" for hours, trying to complete the "Trial of Fire" quest by defeating Hurus. I know where he is, but I cannot get there (middle of the upper world map). All of the underworld map is explored, but in the upper world in a small area where Hurus is, is partial darken by the Fog of War.

It is precisely there, in the heat of the fire, we are to glorify Him. We do this by exercising perfect faith in His goodness and love that has permitted this trial to come upon us. Even more, we are to believe that out of the fire will arise something more worthy of praise to Him than had we never experienced it.

(Slight puzzle spoiler) So you don't frustrate yourself indefinitely trying to figure this one out: Yeah, the torches have to be lit a set way. There are lines indicating the "number" of the torches which you have to light in order. (More irritating mechanical point of the puzzle) I spent an hour or maybe even longer at the same spot not understanding this. You have to light the torches from ...
