VIP 922. I had a VIP 722K that went south. Since I didn't want to be an early adopter of the Hopper 4k, I wanted to try the 922 before I made the transition. I realize that the 922 has had some less than stellar reviews in the past, but so far so good. The main difference for me, from the 722 is the guide format and the much faster search function.

Then it reboots, and is basically in the same state my previous 922 took a few days to reach! Seems 100% ready to go. The latest firmware was in place, GUI ready to go, and even has all the channel icon graphics in place in the guide! Not only that, it booted in 720p, which is the native res of the TV I was using to do setup (bedroom.)
